THE ENORMOUS WORK

Of the War Department Described by Alger

IN A LETTER TO MR. DEPEW.

Almost Impossible For Outsiders to Realize the Task.

THE DIFFICULTIES ENCOUNTERED

In Reply to a Query From the Distinguished New Yorker the Secretary Recites Some Interesting Facts About the Army.

New York, Aug. 22.—Hon. Chauncey M. Depew has received the following letter from the secretary of war.

The letter, which was written in reply to a request for information on the subjects referred to, is as follows:

My Dear Mr. Depew.—The great pressure of business has up to now prevented me from sending to you the statement you were kind enough to ask for as to what had been accomplished in the way of outfitting the army for the field, the conduct of the campaign, etc.

Also, the chiefs of division have been too much driven with work to compile the data required. One not in the midst of the work can hardly realize what an undertaking it is to call 125,000 men into the field at one time, coming from all the states, and to have them mustered and gathered in camps on so short notice, and this, too, when we had scarcely any camp outfit for their accommodation, all having to be provided for by the war department.

As you know, when war was declared there was no equipment whatever for the volunteers in store. That this was successfully accomplished, with very few accidents, is a matter of record.

Subsequent calls, including the regular army (which numbered about 27,000 when war was declared), made a total of 268,500 men. To accomplish all in so short a time has been a great work.

Of course, gathering this vast number of men together, in a large measure under untrained regimental and company commanders—I mean in actual field duty—the lack of knowledge as to sanitary conditions to be observed, the carelessness in not observing instructions which were furnished as to proper care of the men, has added greatly to the work of the medical department.

Thus from the homes of 216,000 volunteers has been constant and great anxiety as to what might happen to their soldier, and hundreds of inquiries made by letters and telegrams have been received every day concerning individual soldiers.

The feeling on the part of these individuals that the war department is responsible for the care of the men individually has naturally aroused sympathy in case of sickness and death, and has created much sorrow.

There is nothing young men in robust health are so prodigal of their health, until it is gone. Men go into camp feeling that they can stand anything and everything, and can not be made to believe to the contrary until stricken with disease.

Every effort has been made from the beginning to furnish every camp with all appliances asked for, but of course the commanding officers in the field are the ones to have the direct charge of these men.

For instance, one army corps commander has given orders and enforced them, respecting sanitary affairs, and he has but a fraction over 2 per cent on the sick list.

Others have been less successful, and the consequence is typhoid and other fevers have been bred and spread to a considerable extent.

A MODEL CAMP.

One regiment in the Chickamauga camp has a colonel who enforces sanitary rules in his regiment, obliging the men to boil all the water they drink, keeping the camp clean, and the result, less than 25 sick, and his camp too in an unfavorable place as any in the command.

Others more favorably situated have ten times that number on the sick list.

Concerning the Santiago campaign, when the ships left Tampa they had on board three months' provisions and an abundance of hospital supplies. They had lighters to unload at a point of debarkation.

These lighters were lost in severe storms on the way. As soon as we were notified of the fact, two tugs of lighters were sent from Mobile and New Orleans, which were also overtaken by storm and lost.

LIGHTERS WRECKED.

The navy supplied us with lighters and one of these was wrecked. The army disengaged, getting off a portion of its supplies and medical stores, and immediately marched to the front to fight the Spaniards.

The great difficulty of landing supplies subsequently was bad wind sprang up every morning at 10 and made a high surf, rendering almost impossible the use of small boats with one lighter which was all they had left for this purpose.

Of the packers who were employed, 60 per cent soon fell sick, and heavy rains falling every day, the roads (if they could be called such) became impassable for vehicles. Pack animals had to be employed to carry food to the army, which being extended to the right around Santiago increased the distance from the coast every day and made the task more difficult.

However, the result and the subsequent sickness that has broken out in the army showed the great wisdom of General Shafter in moving forward to make the attack while his men were in vigor.

It was a movement bordering on audacity, but it succeeded and the resistance of the attack, I have no doubt, greatly disheartened the Spaniards.

The result was one of the greatest victories for the men engaged of modern warfare. The number of prisoners taken exceeded the attacking force by nearly two to one.

DREADFUL YELLOW FEVER.

Yellow fever broke out and the fever list increased into the thousands. It was for a time supposed that it was principally yellow fever. The bringing of troops north at once after the surrender, under such conditions, would have been certain death to a vast number, but, upon inquiry it was ascertained that very few of these cases comparatively were yellow fever, when it was at once decided to bring the army home as speedily as possible.

Everything that human ingenuity could devise has been done to succor that army—not the ingenuity of the secretary of war, but the result of the combined counsel of those who have had a life-long experience in the field.

That some men have been neglected on transports coming home there is no doubt—all against positive orders, due perhaps to carelessness and negligence, but largely on account of not having the medical force to spare (many of whom are sick) from the camp at Santiago. Many medical of-icers seat with transports were taken in on the way home.

To give you a little idea of the work that has been done, I append the following: The work of the adjutant general's department has been to muster and order to their station 216,400 volunteers, and 24,900 for the regular army. This with a reduced force, as many staff officers from all of the departments had been promoted and ordered to the field.

The chief of engineers reports an expenditure of $5,830,000 for harbor defenses, building emplacements for heavy guns, mortar batteries and mines.

SURGEON'S WORK.

The surgeon general has had the enormous work of fitting up hospitals, organizing the medical corps, employing male and female nurses, contract surgeons, being surgeons who are employed from civil life, besides those commissioned as corps, division and brigadier surgeons, furnishing medical supplies and answering the demands from all over the country and from camps at Santiago, Porto Rico and Manila. The work done in this line is almost beyond comprehension.

The commissary general had purchased and distributed, up to August 1, $10,907,233 pounds of rations, which have been transported and distributed to all armies in the field here and at Santiago, Porto Rico and Manila, besides the large quantity distributed among the destitute Cubans.

The quartermaster general's report is too long to even give an approximate idea of his work. In the way of transportation to Honolulu, Manila, Santiago and Porto Rico, and return home, there have been sent 82,638 men, with artillery equipment and supplies. By rail in this country there have been transported 9,700 officers, 233,962 enlisted men, also 40,582 animals, besides thousands of wagons, artillery and other quartermaster, commissary, ordinance, medical and general service stores.

CLOTHING DISTRIBUTED.

The total number of articles of clothing and camp equipage distributed to the army by the quartermaster's department has been 6,274,483, of which I can only mention a few articles as follows: Blankets, 288,730; blouses, 233,762; trousers, 406,423; hats, 334,106; canvas field uniforms, 83,200; shoes, pairs, 511,378; undershirts, 736,965; tents, 179,142, etc., etc.

The total weight of food and forage distributed daily to the army is approximately 900 tons. Added to this is the large fleet of transports chartered and purchased, the management of the same in conveying troops, supplies and ammunition.

The paymaster has promptly paid the army, and is deserving of very great credit for his work.

The signal corps has provided most efficient service, furnishing cable, telegraph, telephone and signal services to the different commands in the field.

If you had a day or two to spare, I would like a sandwich in a little work for you. I would like to send you these statements in detail, which I think would bewilder you, if anything can.

RIOTOUS SCENES REPEATED.

Newport News, Va., Aug. 22.—The riotous scenes in Newport News last Thursday, when it was feared a negro would be lynched for killing a member of the One Hundred and Sixtieth Indiana regiment, were repeated in Phoebeus. A saloonkeeper named Tucker shot John J. Corcoran, a seaman from the collier Cassius, who attempted to forcibly enter his barroom.

A large crowd of sailors and soldiers threatened to lynch Tucker, but he was taken away by three officers at the point of their revolvers and lodged in Hampton jail. Afterward the mob of sailors and soldiers broke into Tucker's saloon and broke everything.

A detail or regulars from Fortress Monroe was sent to quell the disturbance. Corcoran's injury is not serious.

BURIED AT SEA.

New York, Aug. 22.—The hospital ship Olivette, which proceeded from Hampton Roads to Camp Wikoff upon orders from Washington, arrived at Montauk Point, N. Y. Captain John A. Bobb, assistant surgeon of the Thirty-fourth Michigan, died Aug. 19 of remittent malarial fever and dysentery. J. A. Perry, private of company A, First Illinois volunteers, died on Aug. 20 of remittent malarial fever and dysentery. Both were buried at sea on the afternoon of Aug. 20. A vast improvement in the majority of the cases of those ill on the Olivette is reported.

LEFT CAMP THOMAS.

Chickamauga, Ga., Aug. 22.—The movement of troops from Camp Thomas was begun when immediately following the departures of Brigadier General Sanger and his headquarters, the First Georgia and the Thirty-first Michigan, comprising the First brigade, Second division, First corps, commanded by General Roe, were ordered out. These regiments marched to Rossville, a distance of six miles, and loaded there, leaving late Sunday night for Knoxville, the camping place.

ARRIVED SAFELY.

Manilla, Aug. 22.—The American transports Peru and Puebla, having on board General Otis and General Hughes, arrived here. There was no serious illness on board either vessel.

RESIGNATION ACCEPTED.

Madrid, Aug. 22.—The government has accepted the resignation of the governor general of the Canaries, General Manzano. His successor has not yet been appointed.

WANT TO BE APPREHENDED.

San Francisco, Aug. 22.—The men of almost every one of the volunteer regiments in camp at the Presidio are circulating petitions to the secretary of war requesting that they be mustered out of the service. There are very few of the officers with whom this movement has any countenance, and efforts are being made to suppress it.

GOING TO CUBA.

New York, Aug. 22.—The Third United States volunteer signal corps, which was organized in Brooklyn and has been in camp at Chickamauga and Newport News for the past two months, arrived in this city on its way to Santiago de Cuba.

LEFT FOR AMERICA.

Washington, Aug. 22.—The following cablegram from General Shafter has been received by the war department, dated Santiago: "The Yucatan, with 500, Seventh infantry; Santiago, with 500, Thirty-fourth Michigan, and the Hudson, with 500, First district of Columbia, have departed."

RIO GRANDE ARRIVES.

New York, Aug. 22.—The transport Rio Grande arrived at Montauk Point and anchored off shore to wait for the health officer of the camp. She has men of the Ninth and Tenth cavalry on board.

SAGASTA'S ABSURD CLAIMS.

Washington, Aug. 22.—Premier Sagasta's claim, set forth in Madrid dispatches, that Spain will expect indemnity for all government property, buildings, barracks, fortifications, in Cuba, Porto Rico and elsewhere, has excited much comment, as showing the difficult questions to be treated by the military and peace commissions. In official quarters here there is no disposition to make a counter claim to Sagasta's proposition, for this will be done in due time before the commissions, and there is no purpose to outline the government's policy in advance. At the same time, leading officials express their individual opinion that Premier Sagasta's claim is very far fetched, as it is said to be the established rule of international law that all public property of a sovereign government passes to the conqueror when a change of territory occurs. The rule is equally well established that private property undergoes no change. The question is somewhat complicated in the present case by the fact that Cuba and Porto Rico are not acquired strictly by conquest, but rather by mutual agreement. In case of a conquest no question could arise as to the passing of all forts, barracks, reservations, etc., along with the conquered territory.

TO REPAIR OUR SHIPS.

Hongkong, Aug. 22.—Consul General Wildman has requested of the Hongkong authorities permission for the ships of the American fleet now at Manilla to be allowed to dock and repair here. The question presents such serious complications that it had to be submitted to the British home government for an answer. Meanwhile the harbor police ordered the gunboat Zafiro, which arrived here with dispatches from General Merritt and Admiral Dewey, to leave British waters within 24 hours.

VIEWS OF SILVELA.

Madrid, Aug. 22.—Senor Silvela, now the virtual leader of the Conservatives, expresses the views of that party on the capture of Manilla in the following statement: "The capture of Manilla in no wise affects the rest of the archipelago, and the cortes should be summoned with urgency in order to prevent the world gaining the impression that Spain has lost her sovereignty in the Philippines. The Liberal party should conclude peace, but the Sagasta cabinet can not effect the task."

ORDERED TO WASHINGTON.

Washington, Aug. 22.—Admirals Sampson and Schley have been ordered to report to Washington, and it is expected they will reach here Monday. As they have been appointed to serve respectively on the Cuban and Porto Rican commissions, their visit here will afford an opportunity to meet their associates on these commissions, and to discuss with the authorities the general policy to be maintained by this government on the Spanish evacuation of the West Indies.

FIELD DAY SPORTS.

Chickamauga, Ga., Aug. 22.—The field day exercises on Snodgrass field, for which preparations have been in progress for some time, were witnessed by practically the entire Camp Thomas army and hundreds of civilians. The exercises were the first of a series decided upon by General Breckinridge to furnish sport and diversion and athletic training for the men.

ARRIVED SAFELY.

Manilla, Aug. 22.—The American transports Peru and Puebla, having on board General Otis and General Hughes, arrived here. There was no serious illness on board either vessel.

RESIGNATION ACCEPTED.

Madrid, Aug. 22.—The government has accepted the resignation of the governor general of the Canaries, General Manzano. His successor has not yet been appointed.

BUCKEYE DEMOCRATS

Will Nominate Their State Ticket at Dayton This Week.

Dayton, O., Aug. 22.—The Democratic state convention will be held here this week.

The usual district meetings will be held Tuesday afternoon, the committee meetings Tuesday night, and the convention proper on Wednesday. The conventions in the counties that were concluded Saturday indicate that the free silver men will control the convention, although the more conservative element has reorganized the state committee recently.

The more conservative delegates from Montgomery, Butler and other counties have their seats contested and may be thrown out.

The conservatives are represented by Congressman Sorg, ex-Governor Campbell, ex-Collector Dowling and others. While the friends of John R. McLean, who managed the last state campaign, are radically for free silver and the Chicago platform.

Most of the factional fighting is for the control of the state committee. Judge Allen Smalley, who will preside over the temporary organization and deliver the keynote speech, is radically for free silver and the renomination of Bryan.

Among those mentioned for the head of the state ticket as candidate for secretary of state are William Bell of Licking, Lake Jones of Wayne, H. C. De Rau of Sandusky, and Thaddeus Cromley of Pickaway county.

A WAR CONCERT.

Cincinnati, Aug. 22.—One of the unusual features of the thirty-second national encampment, Grand Army, in this city, Sept. 5 to 10, is a war concert to be given on the first three nights of encampment week at Music hall. Three prominent local choral organizations will participate. The most powerful of them is the United Catholic choir. Alternating with this will be the Orpheus club of 150 voices and the Cambro-American Choral society, comprising 150 trained voices. The chorus will be supported by Weber's Military band of 50 pieces. It is now settled that Commander-in-chief Gobin, who is the commander of Camp Alger, will be here on a leave of absence during the encampment week.

NAVAL PROMOTIONS.

Washington, Aug. 22.—The president has made the following promotions in the navy: Commodore John A. Howell, to rear admiral, vice Rear Admiral Charles S. Norton, retired; Lieutenant Cameron M. Winslow, to be advanced five numbers on the list of lieutenants for extraordinary heroism; Lieutenant Edwin A. Anderson, to be advanced five numbers on the list of lieutenants for extraordinary heroism.

PAPAL RECESSIONS.

Rome, Aug. 22.—The pope held a reception in honor of his saint's day. Many prelates, nobles and representatives of Catholic associations were in attendance. His holiness appeared to be in good health and spirits. He was the recipient of a large number of gifts.

NORMAL CONDITIONS.

Washington, Aug. 22.—Conditions about the great state, war and navy building practically have assumed their normal aspect. Only a few clerks were on duty in the principal bureaus and they did only a few hours' work.

ARRIVED AT GALVESTON.

Galveston, Aug. 22.—The First regiment of volunteer immunes arrived here from New Orleans and went into camp on the government reservation. Colonel Riche has received no further orders.

FOR CONGRESS.
MORDECAI WILLIAMS,
of Boyd County.

MADRID, August 18.—The nomination of Senator Davis on the Peace Commission would not be well received here owing to his strong and openly expressed anti-Spanish sentiments.

That's all the stronger argument for his appointment. No Spanish sympathizers on the commission.

We have the largest wheat crop on record, yet the Maysville BULLETIN, says speculators have forced the price down to 65 and 70 cents. God Almighty himself couldn't make a law to suit the Free Silver cranks. They are daft on 16 to 1 and that ends it.—Dover News.

Well, Br'er Curran, we had a big crop last year but there was a shortage in other countries, and when the price reached a dollar as a result of that shortage you Republicans shouted. See what a Republican administration has done. You see, all the cranks are not Free Silverites.

THAT one may judge of the perfect fairness of the Goebel Election Law Commissioners, it is only necessary to say that in eleven counties of the State the Democrats have all the Commissioners, and in thirteen counties the Democrats and Populists have them all. The Republicans, who are now in power in the State, are entirely ignored in these twenty-four counties.—Public Ledger.

Don't tear your shirt. In giving out the list of appointments for publication the State Commissioners stated that in the eleven counties referred to no Republicans were appointed simply because the Republican committees had failed or refused to recommend anyone. In the thirteen counties where the commissioners are all Democrats and Populists the latter were given the appointments because they polled a larger vote in these counties at the last election than the Republicans.

A PROSPEROUS YEAR.

Chesapeake and Ohio Continues to Make a Remarkable Showing Under Present Management.

The annual report of President Ingalls, of the Chesapeake and Ohio Road, for the company's fiscal year ending June 30th last, will be ready for distribution to the stockholders this week.

The property, under the management of Mr. Ingalls, continues to make a remarkable showing, as it has ever since he was placed in charge, some nine or ten years ago, since which time both the gross and net earnings have each succeeding year shown a healthy increase. The figures for the year ending June 30th last are:

1898.	1897.
Gross earnings.....	$11,788,557 05
Operating expenses,	$10,708,182 81 maintenance and
taxes.....	7,982,306 67
Net earnings.....	$ 3,806,250 38
Fixed charges, &c.	$ 3,421,413 63
Surplus over all charges.....	$ 3,187,741 09
	$ 3,118,871 88

The company earned from its line between Lexington and Louisville operated under a trackage contract with the Louisville and Nashville Road $304,244.51, at an expense including rents, interests, &c., of $292,433.73, leaving a net profit from this line of $11,810.78, which amounts are included in the general earnings.

President Ingalls says in his report the operations of the last year on this line have demonstrated the judgment of its directors that it would be a profitable contract for the company.

Continuing, the President says the gross earnings of the company for the year just ended are the greatest in its history, exceeding by more than $1,000,000 the largest previous earnings. All classes of traffic show an increase, but that of freight is the most.

The passenger earnings show a slight increase received from each passenger per mile, but there is an increase in the number of passengers, and the passenger trains show a gratifying gain in the earnings per mile, being for the year just ended 92.5 cents, as against 87.7 cents the previous year.

The tons of freight carried one mile show the very large increase of 25 per cent.

Day at His Desk.

* Washington, Aug. 22.—Secretary Day returned from a week's visit at his home in Canton. He was at his desk at the state department early in the day, and at 11 o'clock went to the White House, where those who participated in the signing of the peace protocol were photographed.

We expect to keep right on sawing wood. COLLINS-RUDY LUMBER CO.

HORRORS AT SANTIAGO.

Kentucky Soldier Writes Bitterly of Their Treatment and Denounces the Insurgents.

CATLETTSBURG, Ky., Aug. 20.—Former City Editor Orcutt, of the Democrat of this place, who is now with the army at Santiago, writes bitterly of the treatment of the soldiers there. His letter of recent date says:

"Our treatment has been outrageous—worse than I would accord my dog at home—and the medical service has been on a par with the other branches. Oh, but the military system of our nation will get a great hauling over the coals when this army gets home. The horrors have been far greater than you could imagine, and regulars, volunteers and recruits alike are sick at heart and utterly disgusted.

"As to the Cubans—well, how completely our people have been hoodwinked. I have seen thousands of them since landing, and many of the so-called 'upper crust' and official set, and honestly our lowest, most ignorant set of negroes are a credit besides them in intelligence and cleanliness. They are filthy to a disgusting degree and will steal everything we possess if we don't watch them close. Lazy—why they won't even care for their wounded.

"At Siboney, our supply headquarters, where they were being fed by the thousands, the lazy hounds actually refused to assist Miss Clara Barton in her Red Cross work—refused to assist in caring for and moving our wounded or in repairing roads for the transportation of rations and other supplies to us soldiers in the interior. Oh, it is quite a mistaken idea you people have concerning the 'poor Cuban.' Most earnestly do I, as well as thousands of others, question their ability to govern themselves without the aid of some other power like the United States. Honestly, I have more respect for the Spaniards than for the Cubans."

DIED, Sunday morning, little Annabel, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Hampton, at their home on West Second street, aged two years and eight months. The funeral occurs this afternoon.

I am thinking of you, darling,
As I watch the dying day,
While the twilight dews are falling
And the light fades slow away.

I shall think of you forever—
When the autumn leaves are red,
I shall feel you once more near me,
I shall hear the words you said.

GOMEZ,

The Distinguished Cuban, Planning For the Island's Religious and Educational Future.

[Exchange.]

General Gomez has sent to the United States Mr. Jose De Armas, a well-to-do Cuban planter of high standing, charging him with the duty of consulting with managers of church missions boards, with freedmen's and other aid associations, and with leading men in this country concerning the religious and educational future of Cuba. He has already arrived and has told some of the persons indicated that he has not come seeking money so much as methods. He says that he wishes to ask those moral forces which sent battle ships to Cuban waters to free Cuba, what is best to be done next in order to make the most of freedom.

Mr. De Armas also says he desires to see the Secretaries of those Methodist, Congregational and other societies which undertook work among the colored and poor white people of the Southern States at the close of the Civil War. General Gomez is sure they must have learned by experience. He wants the benefit of that experience. Mr. De Armas has already met several of the committees representing the Methodist, Baptist, Episcopal, and Quaker societies which contemplate educational work in Cuba.

He is highly gratified to learn that these societies are to observe comity in entering into these new mission fields, and as far as possible to banish sectarian rivalry.

THE CORN HARVEST.

Let It Be Thoroughly Cured Before Put in the Shock.

H. H. Gratz, the oldest farmer editor in Kentucky, gives the following observation and advice in his paper, the Lexington Gazette:

"We recall the weather of the summer of 1858 as being very similar to this. Warm rains continued, extending into the fall until latter October. A very fine crop of corn was raised that year, like the present one. The ripening was deceptive. While the blades and shucks dried, the stalk and cob was full of sap when the corn was put in the shock. After this the weather continued warm and damp, and the result was that 75 per cent. of that great crop rotted in the shock.

"Watch closely the conditions at harvest time next month. Allow it to stand until it has thoroughly matured, even at the cost of losing much of the fodder. Better than risk the loss of the corn. The yield of the present crop will be large in this State, but it must be borne in mind the acreage is a very small one.

"A word to the wise is sufficient. Don't put your corn in the shock until it has safely matured."

Is It One of Sampson's Birds?

William Conway, night hostler at the C. and O. station, at 3:45 Saturday afternoon captured a carrier pigeon with a silver band on the leg, bearing the initials N. A., and No. 39,452.

It is believed this is one of the birds liberated by Admiral Sampson, of the North Atlantic Squadron.

THE ADAMS EXPRESS.

The Company Seeking To Have Its Assessment in Kentucky Considerably Reduced.

Attorney General Taylor left for Chattanooga Saturday to represent the State in the case of the Adams Express Company vs. the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

The company is seeking to enjoin the Auditor from certifying the valuation of its franchise as assessed by the State Board to the different County Clerks of the State. The assessment as made by the Board of Valuation for the State is $1,296,000.

The company insists in its petition that the assessment as made by the State Board includes property and elements of value not existing in Kentucky and not taxable by it to the extent of $947,637.60. It is therefore seeking to enjoin the Auditor from collecting on $1,296,000, the valuation of its franchise as assessed by the board, and that the assessment be reduced to not exceeding $485,362.40, this being the amount of capital invested in Kentucky by the company.

The granting of the temporary injunction by the district court at Chattanooga will not determine the case, as it will come up in the Federal Court at Frankfort upon its merits at the next term in January.

If the Federal Court sustains the contention of the express company and decides that it is only taxable on the capital involved in Kentucky, it will not only decrease the revenue of the State in this particular case but will affect similar corporations.

KILGOUR--RITTENHOUSE.

A Former Maysville Physician Wedded at Harrison, Ohio, Tuesday, August 16th.

Dr. John C. Kilgour, formerly of this city, a native of Mason County, and Miss Ella Rittenhouse, of Harrison, O., were married on Tuesday, August 16th, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Jennie Rittenhouse, on State street, West Harrison.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. G. White, in the presence of the family only.

The groom moved from Maysville a few years ago to Harrison where he has a large and lucrative practice. The bride is young, pretty, accomplished and wealthy.

The numerous friends in this city and county extend congratulations and join in wishing groom and bride a long life, with much happiness and prosperity.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1. Every bottle guaranteed.

SUPERIOR

SINGLE DISC
GRAIN DRILL.
Simplicity of Perfection.

The only absolute positive force feed, which can be instantly changed to any desired quantity—a vast improvement over the old style cog wheel feed abandoned many years ago. Can be thrown in and out of gear, allowing the disc to remain in the ground—another improvement over the old style drills.

THE SUPERIOR SINGLE DISC DRILL will do more and better work with less labor than any other drill made. It will sow and cover grain in all kinds and conditions of soil, in hard ground and soft ground, in weeds, corn stalks, crab grass or any kind of vines, without clogging. We have been selling this drill for four years. Ask the users as to their superiority and they will invariably tell you to buy no other and that they are the best drills on earth. The SUPERIOR was the first successful Disc Drill. There are imitations; Beware of them. We solicit your inspection of the Superior before placing your order for a drill.

Governor Mount Will Appoint
No Outsider

TO CAPTAINCY OF COMPANY.

Citizens of Crawfordsville Received an Assuring Message From the State
Executive — Will Observe
Line of Promotion.

Crawfordsville, Ind., Aug. 22.—The friends of company M, One Hundred and Fifty-eighth Indiana volunteers, were greatly excited over a report from Chickamauga that the regimental officers and influential friends were urging the appointment of an outsider, an Indianapolis man, to the captaincy of the Crawfordsville company, to succeed Captain Alexander, who has resigned.

In response to a telegram of inquiry Governor Mount set them at ease by the following reply:

"In regard to the appointment in company M permit me to say that it is my policy to recognize the regular line of promotion in all cases. I am quite certain Montgomery county is able to furnish officers to command its own companies." J. A. MOUNT."

Snow In Hot Water.

New Albany, Ind., Aug. 22.—Isaac Snow, who killed William McCart near Bedford, was arrested here. Judge Martin, at Bedford, wired Chief of Police Adams not to allow Snow to be brought to Bedford as there was much feeling against him and stated that if the prisoner would consent to waive a preliminary examination it would be advisable to hold him in New Albany until the meeting of the grand jury at Bedford. Snow consented.

Pythians Capture Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Aug. 22.—Present indications point to a large attendance upon the biennial encampment of the Knights of Pythias. An estimate of the number of uniform rank men arriving places the number at 5,500 which does not include the members of subordinate lodges and women and children. The encampment does not open in fact until Tuesday, but the city is already crowded and has taken on a gala appearance.

Three Candidates.

Louisville, Aug. 22.—At the final hour for the aspirants for the Democratic congressional nomination to qualify three Democrats put up the required amount. They were ex-State Senator Dr. Atwood Smith, Oscar Turner and John Williams. The Democratic convention to select the nominee will be held in two weeks.

Posey Endorsed.

Evansville, Ind., Aug. 22.—The Republicans of Vanderburgh county nominated Al Vogel and Joseph Messick for representatives. Frank B. Posey was endorsed for United States senator.

Three Killed.

Pineville, Ky., Aug. 22.—During a quarrel over women Bratcher Williams, John Head and a man named Malone were killed and Isaac Lunsford wounded.

SHOOK HANDS

With the Burgomaster of Mayence and Made a Speech.

Mayence, Hesse, Aug. 22.—Emperor distinguished visitor at the review was Emperor William, guest of Duke of Hesse.

It is his first visit to the city since his accession. Mayence is en fete and brilliantly decorated.

On leaving the train the emperor proceeded on horseback to a triumphal arch at the castle gate, where the chief burgomaster delivered an address of welcome to his majesty.

Emperor William, replying to the address, said:

I thank you, wershipful burgomaster, for your cordial words. I am not a stranger to your city. When here as a boy, I conceived ideas similar to those you have just expressed.

The holy Roman empire of the German peoples fell because it was not built on a national foundation. Its decadence was due to lack of patriotism and cohesion. The German empire of today arose out of strongly felt need of union and of a common head, and it reared itself upon the basis of love of Fatherland.

I am firmly determined to preserve with all my strength the work of my grandfather, and that peace which is so dear to us.

I shall always be mindful of the fact that it was from the house of my dear cousin, where I am now a guest, that my grandfather started on his westward march during which, with a firm hammer stroke, he welded the German empire. I thank you for your friendly reception and for these beautiful decorations I beg also to thank my fellow citizens."

Emperor William then shook hands with the burgomaster amid the cheers of the multitude and rode off to the reviewing ground.

Washington, Aug. 22.—It was a quiet morning at the White House. There were comparatively few visitors, and those who saw the president remained only a short time. The members of the naval war board called a little after 10 o'clock to talk over the movements of war vessels.

The Doctor Was Out.

A doctor perpetrated a witticism at his own expense late one night last week. He had lost his latchkey, the door was locked, he was cold from a long ride, and the more he clanged the doorknob the more the suspicion grew in his mind that some one had chloroformed him.

But his sister had been aroused by the bell. "Some one to see the doctor and he's out, and I shall have to answer the bell or they'll ring all night," she said to herself and hurried down to the door clad in light attire and sleepy impatient.

Opening the door a little, not far enough to present her dishabille to any intruding eye, she shouted into the frosty air, "The doctor's out!" and closed the door with the quickness of a camera slide.

"Yes, I know he's out," screamed the irate M. D., "and he wants to get in."

The Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company, in its circular for the week, has the following:

All the buyers having returned after their vacation, the breaks took their usual aspect during the past week, and while the offerings were not very large, they were fair in size, considering that this is a short crop year.

Prices for low and medium grades were in about the same range as they have been, the former, if anything, somewhat higher. The better goods were not as strong, but we can hardly quote a decline, rather an irregularity in bidding, because in many instances excellent sales of the goods were made. A very good feature of the week's market was the fact that there was certainly an improved tendency and it closed stronger than it opened.

The sales having been very light during the two previous weeks, stocks naturally increased somewhat, but if our reports are correct, most packers will soon be through shipping, and, with anything like liberal sales, there will be no further accumulations.

Recent rains must have produced considerable changes in the outlook for the new crop. If they have extended through the Blue Grass region, where the crops are generally ready to cut, some damage will surely result, but in other sections the late setting will be greatly benefited and we think that in quantity an average crop is in sight. What it will be in quality remains to be seen.

REPAIRING of all kinds done promptly and on very reasonable terms. Satisfaction guaranteed.
